FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nanaimo Airport Commission Hosts Open House

Nanaimo, British Columbia (November 14, 2016) The Nanaimo Airport is throwing open its doors on Tuesday, November 22 and inviting the public to an open house.

“As a part of our constitutional responsibilities as an Airport Commission, we host an annual open house to allow the public to learn more about our operations and share their feedback”, says Mike Hooper, President and CEO of the Nanaimo Airport Commission.

The Nanaimo Airport Staff and Board of Directors will be on hand to talk with individuals about the Commission’s work and will conduct tours of some of the operational equipment. Refreshments will be served.

The Commission is comprised of up to nine Directors and a past Chair, all appointed by the Commission. Of the nine directors, four are selected by the Commission to represent the community at large and the remaining five appointments as a result of the nominations from these entities as indicated by the NAC bylaws:

- The City of Nanaimo
- The Regional District of Nanaimo
- The Cowichan Valley Regional District
- The Town of Ladysmith
- The Greater Nanaimo Chamber of Commerce

Open House Details:

About Nanaimo Airport (YCD):

Nanaimo Airport is a ten-minute drive south of downtown Nanaimo on 224 hectares (550 acres), which includes the nearby Cottonwood Golf Course. YCD is a not-for-profit authority owned by the Nanaimo Airport Commission. Vancouver Island's third largest airport, Nanaimo Airport serves a primary central Vancouver Island area with a total population base of approximately 250,000. The YCD service area extends north from Nanaimo to Qualicum, west to the Alberni-Clayoquot Regional District, and south to Duncan and the Cowichan Valley. YCD is ideally situated as the most convenient departure/arrival point for customers from the mid-Island area.
